Payment Method: Direct Deposit or EMT?

Prairie Lamb Co-op will be in no way responsible for the weights of your lambs. You must ship lambs that are of the correct weight requirements, Prairie Lamb can discuss these requirements with you in order for you to get the best possible return for your lambs. It will also require you making sure that the lambs you are booking in Do Not have their adult teeth, as if so, they will then be classed as “mutton” and you will not get paid for these lambs.

Lambs need to be clean & healthy & have the correct RFID tag to match your paperwork.
Administration cost: $5.00 per lamb.

I understand that I will be financially responsible to pay the above fee for the lambs that are on my booking form. And I am responsible for transporting them to their destination on the appropriate day allocated to me by the Prairie Lamb load coordinator. All applicable pages need to be filled out correctly. Please make sure all tag numbers are included and then emailed to transport@PrairieLambCo-op.com

We also offer Grading & Yield info back on your lambs if you would like to receive this Y or N?
